CREATING CONNECTIONS

The newsletter of Community United Methodist Church

So, for the month of September we went about raising money to send with the Ad Council agreeing to match the first five hundred dollars. Lori Oberlander showed us a video and set a goal of $$ 1,500.00$ for the church. I am pleased to say that we raised $$ 2,474.66$ ! The money came from the church, individual donors, a charitable foundation and my Laboring 4 Jesus cup which collected $268.66. What I find truly amazing about this congregation is that, without blinking an eye, we launched into another relief effort raising money for Hurricane Relief and are already up to approximately $$ 1,800.00$. God truly does love a cheerful giver. Thank you so much.

God's Favorite Four-Letter Words

If you have kids, including grandkids, you've probably held your breath when they came home from their first week of school hoping they didn't learn anything they shouldn't have. Teresa and I cringed when Heidi came home, held up her ring finger and told us it meant "to fuss". Collective sigh of relief! Eventually, they will learn all the four-letter words and may even put them to use.

I'd like for us to focus on some of the other four-letter words that God would rather we use. Words like Love, Hope, Help, Feed, Heal, Save, Cure, Free, Walk, Lead, Gift and Care to name a few. Hopefully, you can come up with others. Jesus uses us to tell people about the Hope that is in him. Jesus instructed Peter (and us) to Feed his sheep. Through us, Jesus works to Heal the hurting and Cure those who are afflicted. We are there to Free those trapped in sin and help them Walk in the light of his Love. We are charged with the Care of those who are weak and to Lead people to Jesus so they can accept the free Gift of salvation.

The four-letter word that has really been on my mind (and heart) this year is Help. The Holy Spirit has been asking me how I/We can help those who can't help themselves. One of the greatest things we can give another person is our time, talents and attention. The problem is that helping, really helping, is a big commitment and often times we rationalize our inaction by citing what it says in the Bible: God helps those who help themselves. After all, if they really wanted to, they'd knuckle down and do it themselves. In spite of the fact that 8 of 10 Americans believe this verse is in the Bible, it is not. For many who are trapped in poverty or who are struggling financially, self-help isn't so simple. Some people find themselves in a hole so deep they can't possibly climb out without help. Sometimes people face challenges that they don't know how to overcome on their own or they simply do not have the resources to do it. This is where we come in. Showing compassion for those who struggle is part of the very character of God. As Scripture reveals time and time again, God works through people (and churches) using us as his instruments to change the world.

So, on the contrary, God does really help those who can't help themselves. This is where we come in. We can be the hands of God in working with those who need help moving forward. We have had a good year this year in our mission outreach and I truly believe that God is ready to take us to the next level. So, please, take some time in prayer and ask the Holy Spirit to show us where and how we can be most effective in helping God help those who cannot help themselves.

Yours in Service,

Abstract

For the Joy and Love of Learning: A Peninsula Circuit Gathering Trinity United Methodist Church, Sequim

The four United Methodist Churches on the Olympic Peninsula will gather to celebrate the joy and love of learning at 10:00 a.m. for shared learning as well as a time for service learning. A power-point presentation will highlight important moments and markers in each church. We'll also hear a message from District Superintendent, Daniel Foster. After that we'll all work together on a mission project preparing Mercy Kits. The Gathering will conclude with a marvelous hot potato bar lunch, complete with salad and desserts.

Watch for more info as the date approaches.

Saturday, October 28th at 10:00 a.m.

Things I Take for Granted

I sat in my cozy chair and read my Bible. Then I scanned Facebook. My attention was captured by a memorial to William Tyndale carved with a statement that Tyndale was convicted of heresy and on October 6, 1536 was executed for translating the Bible into English.

This memorial made me think of how often I take things for granted. I have freedom to attend church, to read my Bible, and to share my beliefs. My family honors God and supports my faith. I don't have much money, but I'm rich in freedom. Jesus died to save me from my sin. Soldiers died defending my freedoms. William Tyndale died so I can read the Bible in English. While I enjoy these privileges, some people today face rejection and death threats from their own families for following Jesus Christ. Others are persecuted, imprisoned, or killed for their faith.

Knowing all this, I now pick up my Bible with renewed reverence. I sing with a grateful heart and pray for fellow believers in other countries who are suffering for their faith.

Ruth L. Snyder (Alberta, Canada)

We have freedom to pursue our faith today because of choices people made yesterday.

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for the gifts of salvation, the Bible, and freedom.
Be with our brothers and sisters who are suffering for you. Amen.
